

SPEAKING A2 – TOPIC 3: INTERESTING ADVERTISEMENT

PART 1: INTERVIEW

1. What's your name? Can I see your ID?
2. Where are you from?
3. Do you enjoy/like shopping?
4. What do you usually go shopping for?
5. Do you shop online?

PART 2: LONG TURN

Describe an interesting advertisement you have seen

You should say:

- What the advertisement was for
- Where you saw it (TV, internet, etc.)
- What was special about it

and explain why you found it interesting

You will have to talk about the topic for 2 to 3 minutes. You have one minute to think about what you're going to say. You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

PART 3: TWO-WAY DISCUSSION

1. Why do children love watching advertisements?
2. Do you think advertising affects what people buy?
3. What are some popular ways to advertise a product?

SUGGESTIONS

PART 1: INTERVIEW

⇒ Suggested answers:

1. What's your name? Can I see your ID?

My name is Lan. Yes, here's my ID.

2. Where are you from?

I'm from Hanoi, the capital city of Vietnam.

3. Do you enjoy/like shopping?

• Yes, I like shopping, especially for clothes and books. I think shopping is fun because I can choose things that match my style. Sometimes I also go shopping with my friends, and it becomes a nice way to relax and spend time together.

• Not really. I don't enjoy shopping very much because I think it takes a lot of time. I usually just buy the things I really need, like food or school supplies, and then I go home.

4. What do you usually go shopping for?

I usually go shopping for clothes, shoes, and sometimes cosmetics. I also buy food and drinks from the supermarket every week. If there are special occasions like birthdays, I also look for small gifts for my friends or family.

5. Do you shop online?

• Yes, I sometimes shop online because it's very convenient. I can compare prices and find discounts easily. I usually buy simple things like clothes, books, or accessories online, but for big things I prefer to buy in a store.

• No, I don't really shop online. I prefer to buy things directly in the store so I can check the quality. I also enjoy seeing the products in person and trying them before I decide to buy.

PART 2: LONG TURN

1. Selection

The easiest choice is to describe a government TV advertisement about an environmental issue such as energy conservation or an anti-litter campaign.

2. Grammar Point

Try to use a mix of tenses:

- I can remember the first time that I saw it.
- It used to be broadcast every night at prime time.
- It is still being shown today.

3. Uncommon Vocabulary

Nouns	Meaning	Example
commercial billboard
slogan
endorsement
A long-running TV campaigns energy conservation
public awareness

Verbs	Meaning	Example
promote target
launch a campaign persuade influence
alter one's lifestyle

Adjectives	Meaning	Example
catchy
eye-catching misleading persuasive
viral

Idioms	Meaning	Example
hit the market	become available for sale	The new iPhone will hit the market next month with huge advertisements.
sell like hotcakes	sell very quickly	After the big ad campaign, the sneakers sold like hotcakes.
word of mouth	recommendations by people	Many small businesses grow through word of mouth, not expensive ads.
make a name for oneself	become famous or well-known	The company made a name for itself after a creative commercial.
in your face	very direct and hard to ignore	That perfume ad is so in your face that everyone remembers it.

PART 3: TWO-WAY DISCUSSION

⇒ Suggested answers

1. Why do children love watching advertisements?

(Answer) I think children love watching advertisements because they are colorful and fun.

(Why) One reason is that many ads use songs, cartoons, or funny characters, which easily catch children's attention.

(Example) For example, kids often enjoy toy or snack commercials because they look like short cartoons and make them feel excited.

(Opposite) On the other hand, adults usually find advertisements boring or even annoying, but for children, they are more like a form of entertainment.

2. Do you think advertising affects what people buy?

(Answer) Yes, I believe advertising has a strong effect on what people buy.

(Why) The main reason is that advertisements make products look more attractive and useful, so people often want to try them.

(Example) For instance, when I see an ad for a new drink or snack, I feel curious and usually want to buy it at least once.

(Opposite) However, not everyone follows advertising. Some people prefer to listen to friends' advice or check online reviews before they decide to buy.

3. What are some popular ways to advertise a product?

(Answer) I think some popular ways to advertise a product are on television, on social media, and with posters in public places.

(Why) This is because these methods can reach a large number of people very quickly.

(Example) For example, many companies use Facebook or TikTok ads because young people spend a lot of time online, while supermarkets often use posters or flyers to show discounts.

(Opposite) In contrast, in the past advertising was mostly in newspapers or on the radio, but today online advertising has become the most common way.