SUGGESTIONS

PART 1: INTERVIEW

⇒ Suggested answers:

3. How often do you exercise?

I usually exercise about three times a week. I often go in the evening after work because it helps me relax.

4. What kind of exercise do people usually do in your country?

In my country, many people like jogging in the park or doing morning exercises. Young people often go to the gym, while older people enjoy walking or doing yoga.

5. Do you prefer exercising alone or with friends? Why?

I prefer exercising with friends because it feels more fun and keeps me motivated. We can talk and encourage each other, so I don't get bored.

PART 2: LONG TURN

1. Selection

It is sometimes difficult to describe a modern exercise in detail. It may be easier to talk about something simple like jogging, yoga, or cycling because these are common and easy to imagine. If you want to be more creative, you can also describe a new trend such as VR fitness games or dance workouts on social media.

2. Grammar Point

You should use Simple Future or Might to talk about predictions:

S + will + V-inf → for certain predictions.

S + might + V-inf → for less certain or possible predictions.

- This exercise will become very popular in the future.
- People will do it in the park or at the gym.
