

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

The form has a yellow background with a pink grid pattern. At the top, a blue wavy line is on the left. A yellow bar contains the question 'Are you good at remembering other people's names or faces?'. Below this, there are two columns. The left column is headed 'YES' and contains three checkboxes: 'State that you are good at remembering names and faces of other people', 'Explain why/ how (natural ability; techniques or tools that you use, etc.)', and 'Benefits of being good at remembering names and faces'. The right column is headed 'NO' and contains three checkboxes: 'State that you are bad at remembering names and faces of other people', 'In what situations? | Why?', and 'Possible consequences?| Possible solutions?'. In the bottom right corner, there is a pink and blue oval shape.

YES

I can easily remembering people's face after first meet due to the feature of their faces such as mole, hairs... And when I first see someone, I notice to their eyes. Next are the special features on their face. Remembering a person's names and faces can make our relationship better because other person knows that you care about them, then they are impressed and trust you more.

I can recall people's faces + with ease/ precision + even after our first encounter thanks to + my attention to their distinctive facial features such as eyes and moles, in addition to other unique aspects of their appearance like hairstyles. I tend to associate these memorable traits with the person's name, which reinforces my memory. I believe that having this ability helps me + build (up)/ develop + strong social relationships as it fosters a sense of appreciation and respect, which contributes to a positive impression and enhances credibility.

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

NO

It's hard for me to remember the names of my new classmates and colleagues. At the first time I join English class, I meet many people, so I feel too much. Thus, I can't connect between their appearances and their right names.

I have trouble remembering names and faces of other people, including those of my new classmates and even of my long-term colleagues. For example, when I attended the first lesson of my English class, I was overwhelmed by the large number of unfamiliar faces. Thus, I struggled to match my classmates' names to their faces correctly, which, to a degree, hindered my effective participation in class activities. (However, I am aware that recalling names and faces is an important social skill, hence, I am working on techniques such as visualization and association to strengthen my memory.)

Have you ever forgotten an important date before?

YES

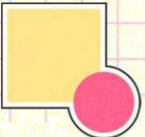

- ☐ State that you have forgotten a significant date
- ☐ How many times? In what situation(s)? Why?
- ☐ Solution(s) to reduce the chances of forgetting important dates?

NO

- ☐ State that you have not forgotten a significant date
 - ☐ Why? Strategies/ Practices that you use to recall important dates easily?
 - ☐ Positive effects?
-

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

YES

Definitely yes, I had once forgotten I had a trip to Singapore last month. My family planned the trip but I don't remember it and the day for flight. Then my mother asked I prepare for the trip and I suddenly remembered. After that, I use a digital calendar.

Yes, I have, and I can recall a recent incident when I totally forgot about my family trip to Singapore last month. My family had planned a meticulous schedule for it, but somehow it completely slipped my mind. It was only when my mother asked me about my preparation for this trip that I realized my oversight. Since the incident, I have used a digital calendar to ensure that I won't miss any other significant dates.

NO

No, I'm not usually a forgetful person, even on my busy day. I always try to keep important date on my phone as possible such as the birthdays of my family and my friends. It help me keep good relationships with others. If having special events like appointments, I often set up multiple alerts and create to-do lists to assist my memory.

No, it's uncommon for me to be forgetful, even on busy/ hectic days. I always try to maintain a record of as many important dates as possible on my phone, for example, the birthdays of my family members and my friends. Specifically, setting multiple alerts and creating to-do lists are regular practices I use to improve my ability to recall those dates. (By remembering important dates, I am able to express my attentiveness and thoughtfulness, which enables me to + maintain strong relationships / strengthen my relationships + with others.)

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

FURTHER PRACTICE

What food do you like best?

- My favorite food is ...
- The food I enjoy the most is ...
- What I love eating the most is ...
- The food that appeals to me the most is ...
- The food I prefer above all others is ...
- The food I consider my top choice is ...
- The food I find most irresistible is...

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

What food do you like best?

- ☐ What is the food you like best?
- ☐ Is it traditional or international?
- ☐ What ingredients make it appealing in terms of taste, texture, and/or freshness?
- ☐ Is it expensive or cheap?
- ☐ Is it sold widely?
- ☐ How often do you prepare it at home vs. eating out?
- ☐ Why do you like it?

What food do you like best?

As a Vietnamese person, the food I consider my t..... choice is definitely banh my, an i..... breakfast or midday snack. To start with, it represents a perfect f..... of s....., combining French bread-making techniques with Vietnamese f..... like herbs and pickled vegetables to create a s..... street food in Vietnam. Moreover, the c..... of the fresh bread, combined with s..... meat and pate, as well as spicy chili, and delicious sauce, makes banh my r..... in flavor. In addition, I usually buy it from streetside s..... for breakfast, and find it really easy to a..... as it's a..... and sold widely. I love banh my because it's quick, and combines multiple flavors in every b...... It truly r..... Vietnamese creativity and culinary culture.

top ... iconic ... fusion ... styles ... flavors ... staple ... crunch ... savory ... rich ...
stalls ... access ... affordable ... bite... reflects ...

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

Do you exercise every day?

No, I do not. I am tired from work. And I have family things to do. I swim or walk sometimes. They are not very hard and I can still be active a little bit. I'm planning to exercise more to be healthier.

Return
to Menu

I don't make it a habit to exercise daily due to long exhausting workdays and other family commitments that take up much of my time. On the days I do, I prefer low-intensity activities like swimming or walking to stay energized, which keeps me somewhat active without overwhelming my routine. However, I'm planning to build better habits for more positive impact on my health.

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

Are you good at stress management?

No, I do not manage stress well. My job is hard. I try to feel better by taking breaks or sleeping. They may be helpful sometimes.

Return
to Menu

No, I struggle with managing stress due to a high-pressure job that often leaves me feeling overwhelmed. I attempt to ease this by taking short breaks throughout the day or having adequate sleep, which keeps my stress levels in check in several challenging situations.

What do you think is the most helpful household appliance in your house?

The microwave oven has become i.... in my household, as it not only a.... the process of reheating meals but also e.... e.... defrosting and the preparation of simple dishes. By r.... on its timer, I can m.... with e.... while feeling confident that my food will be ready without the r.... of burning. Overall, this appliance, which r..... the convenience of modern technology, allows me to prepare dinner in half the u..... time, which g.... me freedom to enjoy the rest of my evening.

Return
to Menu

indispensable ... accelerates ... enables ... efficient ... relying ... multitask ... ease ... risk ... represents ... usual ... grants ...

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

What are the three key things that can make people live longer?

According to studies, the t.... three e.... c..... to longer l.... are a healthy diet, routine physical exercise, and not smoking. Having a diet l.... in processed foods and high in n..... supports optimal bodily f..... and helps p.... illnesses. Besides, regular w...., such as running or swimming, e.... endurance and metabolic health. In a.... to that, steering clear of tobacco prevents r..... and cardiovascular damage, which are major causes of p.... death. All in all, i.... these practices into daily life can foster e.... lifespan.

Return
to Menu

top ... elements ... contributing ... lifespan ... low ... nutrients ... functions ... prevent ... workouts ... enhance ... addition ...
respiratory ... premature ... integrating ... extended ...

Which meal do you think is the most important?

I consider dinner the most s..... meal of the day because it serves as a time for family b.... and relaxation after a long day. This meal provides an opportunity to u.... and r..... my body after daily activities, therefore, I often focus on balanced meals that include protein, vegetables, and whole grains, as they help r.... my e..... levels. M...., skipping dinner usually leaves me feeling u...., which can a.... my mood and sleep quality negatively, so I p..... it in my daily r.....

Return
to Menu

significant ... bonding ... unwind ... refuel ... restore energy ... moreover ... unfulfilled ... affect ... prioritize ... routine ...

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.