

PRONUNCIATION VOWEL SOUNDS

Diphthong/ Long sound
-eɪ-

/eɪ/

	Sound 1 /e/	Sound 2 /eɪ/
	pen What an awful pen!	pain What an awful pain!
	shed The dog's in the shed.	shade The dog's in the shade.
	edge It's a difficult edge.	age It's a difficult age.
	wet Just wet.	wait Just wait.
	test Test this food.	taste Taste this food.
	pepper That's too much pepper.	paper That's too much paper.

MR GREY: This train's late! I've been waiting here for ages.

PORTER: Which train?

MR GREY: The 8.18 to Baker Street.

PORTER: The 8.18? I'm afraid you've made a mistake, sir.

MR GREY: A mistake? My timetable says: Baker Street train- 8.18

PORTER: Oh no. The Baker Street train leaves at 8.08.

MR GREY: At 8.08?

PORTER: They changed the timetable at the end of April. It's the first of May today.

MR GREY: Changed it? May I see the new timetable? What does it say?

PORTER: It says: Baker Street train- 8.08.

MR GREY: Oh no, you're right. The train isn't late. I am.

Diphthong/ Long sound -aɪ-

/ aɪ /

SPEAKING

UNIT 4: LET'S EAT

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

PRONUNCIATION

PRONUNCIATION Spelling Patterns for Long Vowel Sounds

76

Most vowel sounds in English can be spelled in different ways, but some spelling patterns are especially common.

/eɪ/

The /eɪ/ sound is often spelled ai (aid) or ay (day).

paid	tail	mail	stay	way	always
-------------	-------------	-------------	-------------	------------	---------------

/i:/

The /i:/ sound is often spelled ea (eat) or ee (see).

appeal	meal	tea	three	seem	deep
---------------	-------------	------------	--------------	-------------	-------------

/aɪ/

The /aɪ/ sound is often spelled i (kind) or y (style).

child	climb	blind	bye	type	rhyme
--------------	--------------	--------------	------------	-------------	--------------

/əʊ/

The /əʊ/ sound is often spelled oa (road) or ow (below).

goal	loan	approach	throw	know	window
-------------	-------------	-----------------	--------------	-------------	---------------

When the last three letters of a word are vowel + consonant + -e, the sound of the vowel a, e, i, and o is usually the sound of its name: /eɪ/ for a, /i:/ for e, and so on.

late	complete	fine	note
-------------	-----------------	-------------	-------------

B Say the words and think about the sound of the letters in bold. Put the words in the correct columns. Then work with a partner to add additional words for each long vowel sound. These could be words that follow the common spelling patterns or words that use a different spelling pattern.

advise extreme	feel goal	low make	mind pay	rain road	season try
-------------------	--------------	-------------	-------------	--------------	---------------

/eɪ/	/iː/	/aɪ/	/oʊ/
rain pay make	extreme season feel	mind advise try	road low goal

76

GRAMMAR FOR SPEAKING

GRAMMAR FOR SPEAKING Active vs. Passive Voice

In the active voice, the subject of a sentence performs, or does, the action.

subject verb
Companies sometimes give free samples to customers.

In the passive voice, the subject receives the action.

subject verb
Sometimes, customers are given free samples to interest them.

We form the passive voice with the verb be plus the past participle of the main verb.
Only the verb be changes to show when the action happens.

Our bodies are affected by our minds.
These grapes were grown in Chile.
How should these vegetables be cooked?

We often use the passive voice to talk about processes or an action when the person doing the action is not important.

Next, labels are attached to each can of vegetables.

We use by with the passive voice when we want to specify who or what does the action.

The blood samples were taken by nurses.

the passive: be + past participle

- 1 A lot of movies are shot on location.
Our car is being repaired today.
Andy's bike has been stolen.
The director died when the movie was being made.
You'll be picked up at the airport by one of our staff.
This bill has to be paid tomorrow.
- 2 Batman Begins was directed by Christopher Nolan.

B Underline each verb in the active voice. Circle each verb in the passive voice.

1. Most of my friends go grocery shopping at least once or twice a week.
2. I get fresh eggs from my neighbor every day. Her hens lay them.
3. People love burgers in my country. They can be eaten for lunch or dinner.
4. Some people say you should have breakfast every day, but I rarely do.
5. I ordered a curry for lunch. It was made with potatoes and cauliflower.

68

D Change these sentences from active voice to passive voice.

1. We need water to produce nearly everything.
Water is needed to produce nearly everything.
2. Some restaurants allow their guests to order and pay online.
Guests are allowed to order and pay online by/at some restaurants.
3. Restaurants can hire menu engineers to improve their menus.
Menu engineers can be hired to improve restaurant menus/menus at restaurants.
4. They reopened the restaurant last month.
The restaurant was reopened last month.
5. Farmers first plant the seeds.
First, the seeds are planted. / The seeds are first planted. / The seeds are planted first.

69

E APPLY Work with a partner. Discuss which phrases from the box best complete each description. Then discuss what foods and/or drinks are described.

are buttered	are put	is cooked	is made	is spread
are often grown	can also be used	is drunk	is poured	may be added

water

1. In most places and by most people, this colorless liquid is drunk more often than any other. It can also be used in many other ways, including for cooking, cleaning, and washing.

pizza

2. Bread dough, which is a mix of flour, water, and yeast, is made into a circle. Tomato sauce is spread on top of the dough along with cheese and other ingredients. Then the dough is cooked in a very hot oven.

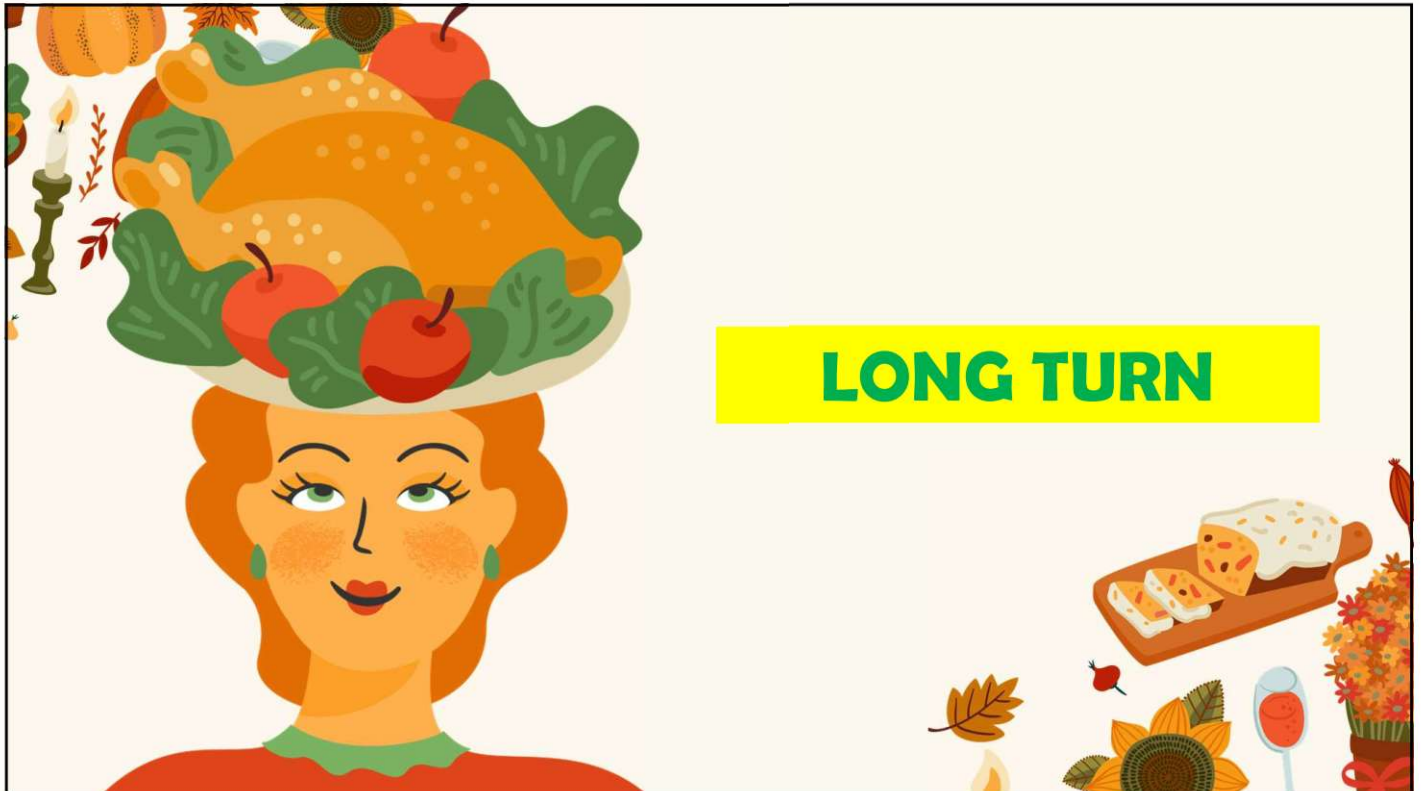

pizza

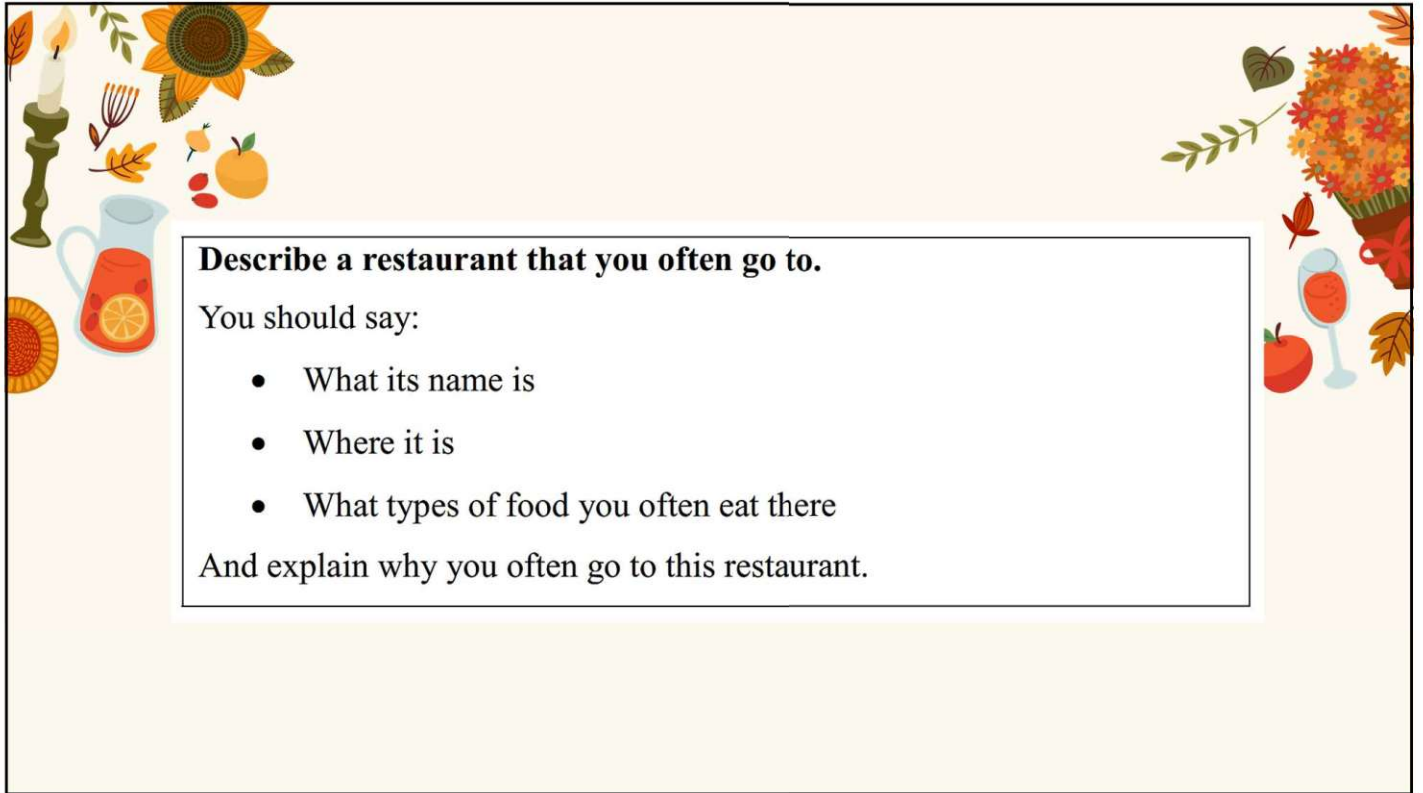

3. These beans are often grown in countries like Brazil, Colombia, and Ethiopia. A machine roasts the beans until they turn brown and grinds them into very small pieces. Finally, very hot water is poured over the ground beans to make a popular drink.

sandwich

4. Two slices of bread are buttered and then cheese and meat are put between the slices. Other things may be added too, such as mayonnaise, lettuce, or tomato.

69

Describe a restaurant that you often go to.

You should say:

- What its name is
- Where it is
- What types of food you often eat there

And explain why you often go to this restaurant.

The ... reflects the popularity of this new restaurant, with tables constantly filled throughout the evening.

bustling environment

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

The spaghetti was so ... that we ordered a second plate.

tasty / delicious / moreish

Reservations are essential, as the restaurant is ...

always in high demand

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

Its trendy décor and lively music ... seeking a social night out.

appeal to young people

... across the menu demonstrates the chef's attention to detail and high standards.

Consistent quality

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

Its menu is changed quarterly to highlight ... sourced from local farms.

seasonal ingredients

The restaurant ... by serving regional specialties alongside international favorites.

satisfies local tastes

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

he candlelit tables give the restaurant a ... perfect for anniversaries.

romantic vibe

... keeps the evening flowing smoothly without long waits.

Efficient table service

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

The family set menu offers ..., feeding four people generously at a reasonable cost.

great value for money

From greeting to payment, the ... at this restaurant created a stress-free dining experience.

seamless service

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

Even during peak hours, the kitchen maintained a ...,
delivering hot dishes within minutes.

quick turnaround

The ... allowed us to enjoy a multi-course meal without feeling rushed or delayed.

efficient table service

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

Every corner is ..., from the floral arrangements to the carefully chosen artwork.

aesthetically pleasing

Ngon Garden is at 70 Nguyen Du Street. It has nice lights, modern design, and some old-style charm. The place feels lively but also comfortable. Families in Vietnam like to come here because the place is suitable for families, and people also bring foreign guests because it looks elegant.

Located at 70 Nguyen Du Street, Ngon Garden combines ambient lighting, a contemporary interior, and touches of rustic charm to create a vibrant yet cozy atmosphere. The family-friendly layout makes it a favorite among Vietnamese families. Also it is elegantly furnished, which makes it a trusted choice for locals inviting foreign guests.

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

The food is tasty and fresh. The dishes look good and often use local ingredients. There are many choices, including mixed-style food, healthy meals, and vegetarian dishes. Portions are big, and the restaurant has a special dish, spicy phở bò.

The food served at Ngon Garden is flavorful, with freshly made dishes that are beautifully presented and often use seasonal ingredients. Diners enjoy a wide variety of options, from fusion cuisine to healthy and vegetarian-friendly choices, alongside generous portions and a memorable signature dish, spicy phở bò.

The service is good. The special thing is the staff pay attention to customers, are friendly and good at their job. They give good advice about food and bring dishes quickly. People like the service because it is usually the same quality.

The service is marked by attentive, hospitable, and professional staff who offer helpful recommendations and ensure efficient table service with a quick turnaround. Guests really appreciate how Ngon Garden usually delivers consistent quality.

Lecturer: Quynh Trang, MA.

The restaurant is easy to go to. It is always busy, and many people like to go to it on weekends and often give good reviews online. It is good for simple meals or special days. Prices are fair while the food quality is good, and the visit is enjoyable.

Thanks to its convenient location, Ngon Garden has been a popular weekend hangout, and is always in high demand, continuously being top-rated on review sites. It's ideal for both casual dining or special occasions, delivering great value for money and a truly enjoyable experience.

