

Grammar: Parallel Structure (Chỉ sự đồng đẳng về mặt ngữ pháp, khi liệt kê các thành phần trong câu)

When a sentence includes a list, words in the list should be the same part of speech. Use two or more nouns, adjectives, or verbs, but do not mix these parts of speech.

Though London in 1900 was quite different from London in 2000, important similarities existed in population, employment, and transportation. (three nouns)

Summers in Miami are long, hot, and humid. (three adjectives)

Phrases and clauses in a list should also be parallel.

Survey results can be misleading because there is a huge difference between what people think they do and what they actually do. (two noun clauses) wh- S-V

Sweden is a family-friendly country because of its paid parental leave, generous monthly payments for children, and free preschool education. (three noun phrases) adj N

To prepare for a test, students should review their notes, find a study partner, and get a good night's sleep. (three verb phrases) V G

PRACTICE 1 Identifying and Creating Parallelism

- A Underline the items or ideas in each sentence that are in parallel form. Circle the word(s) that connect the parallel structures.

2. You know you are truly fluent in another language when you can calculate in it and when you begin to dream in it. (noun clauses (wh- S-V))
5. My new personal computer is both fast and reliable. (adjectives)
8. Young people buy computers not only to do schoolwork but also to play games. (verb phrases: to V + O)
9. If industrial nations continue to burn fossil fuels and if developing nations continue to burn their rain forests, the level of CO₂ in the atmosphere will continue to increase. (dependent conditional clauses)
10. Before the judge announced the punishment, he asked the murderer if he wanted to speak either to the victim's family or to the jury. (prepositional phrases)

ACTIVITY 8

If an underlined part of a sentence below is incorrect, write a correction above it.

1. The most expensive items in this company's budget are employee salaries, communication costs, and spend money on office supplies.

1. You do not need to risk carrying cash or to risk to miss a sale.

You do not need to risk carrying cash or missing a sale.

2. Credit cards are accepted by department stores, airlines, and ~~they can be used in~~ some gas stations.

Noun/Noun Phrases

3. The disadvantages of using a credit card are overspending and ~~you pay~~ high interest rates.

V-ing

paying

4. With credit cards, you can either pay your bill with one check, or ~~you can stretch~~ out your payments.

verb phrases (V-O)

5. You can charge both at restaurants and ~~when you stay~~ at hotels.

prepositional phrases

6. Many people carry not only credit cards but they also carry cash.

Noun/Noun Phrases

7. Many people want neither to pay off their balance monthly nor ~~do they like~~ ~~paying~~ interest.

to pay

(verb phrases : to V-O)

8. Not making any payment or to send in only the minimum payment every month is poor money management.

Ving

sending in

ACTICE 7

Writing Parallel Structures

Complete each sentence with words or phrases that repeat the grammatical form of the italicized words. Look at the writing models on pages 65–69 as needed.

1. The rural Irish were uneducated, poor, and hungry.
adj
2. They lived in shacks, shared living quarters, and worked in poor conditions.
Verb phrases (V-ed)
3. People began to clean up the cities, light up the streets, and Verb phrases (V-O)
plant more trees.
4. The poor Irish became desperate, hoping to find work,
(verb phrases) (to V)
to have decent accommodation, and to escape poverty.
5. The streets of the big cities in the U.S. were dirty, cramped
adj
and dangerous.

TRY IT OUT!

On a separate sheet of paper, combine the sentences in each group in any logical way to make one sentence. Your final sentence may be simple, compound, or complex. Look for opportunities to make adjective clauses. You may add, delete, or change words, but you must not omit any information or change the meaning.

SET 1:

The United Nations maintains peace.
The peace is international.
The United Nations helps countries.
The countries need aid.
The aid is humanitarian.

The UN maintains international peace and helps countries that need humanitarian aid.

SET 2:

There is a garbage patch.
It is in the Pacific Ocean.
It is full of plastic.
The plastic was brought there by ocean currents.

There is a garbage patch in the PO, which is full of plastic (which was) brought about by the ocean currents.

SET 3

3. A home can be damaged.

adj

The damage can be permanent.

The damage is caused by hurricane-force winds.

adv

A home can be permanently damaged by the hurricane-force winds.

A home can suffer from permanent damage (which was) caused by

SET 4

Using cell phones is disruptive.

Using cell phones is disrespectful.

People use cell phones during meetings, which is disruptive and disrespectful./

Although using cell phones during meetings is both disruptive and disrespectful, people still do it.

SET 5

Oksana Masters was born in Ukraine in 1989, with severe physical problems, but now she is an...athlete who competes in.....

She had severe physical problems.

Now she is an outstanding American athlete.

She competes in cross-country skiing and cycling.

SET 6

Researchers plan to design a wind turbine which will be taller.....with 650-foot blades to reduce the cost of.....

It will be taller than the Eiffel Tower.

It will have 650-foot (198-meter) blades.

It could reduce the cost of wind power by 50 percent.

Task: Complete the following sentences with your own ideas.

1. Life in the city is much more interesting than life in the country. For one thing, there is a wider range of entertainment/leisure/recreational options such as cinemas, playgrounds, and restaurants.

2. A positive work environment may contribute greatly to an employee's productivity and well-being.

3. Lack of physical activity can be very harmful. This is particularly the case for office workers who spend much of their day sitting at a desk.

4. Electric cars do not cause air pollution. In addition, __they do not make/produce/generate as much noise as traditional vehicles.

5. Children in small families get a lot of adult attention. On the other hand, those from large families do not have such an advantage.

TEMPLATE OF A PARAGRAPH WITH BOTH SIMILARITIES AND DIFFERENCES

There are both similarities and differences between [A] and [B], and each has its own advantages and disadvantages. This paragraph will first discuss the similarities between the two before moving on to their main differences.

To begin with, [A] and [B] are similar in several ways. One important similarity is that they both In addition, not only [A] but also [B], which means that However, despite these similarities, there are also some clear differences between the two.

To begin with, [A] is generally different from [B] in [aspect 1]. [A]....., whereas [B] tends to be As a result, Another noticeable difference can be seen in [aspect 2]. While [A]....., [B] This shows that

In conclusion, although both [A] and [B] share some similarities, I believe that [A / B] is the better choice because

TEMPLATE OF A PARAGRAPH WITH DIFFERENCES

There are several clear differences between [A] and [B], and this paragraph will analyse these differences by focusing on [aspect 1], [aspect 2], and [aspect 3].

To begin with, [A] is generally different from B in [aspect 1]. [A]....., whereas [B] tends to be As a result,

Another noticeable difference can be seen in [aspect 2]. While [A]....., [B] This shows that

In addition, [aspect 3] is also an important point of contrast. [A] usually, yet [B] which may be more suitable for

In conclusion, although both [A] and [B] have their advantages, I personally believe that [A / B] is the better choice because

TEMPLATE OF A PROBLEM PARAGRAPH

[Clearly stating the issue.] This gives rise to several significant problems.

[.....] is the primary problem that needs addressing. This issue has led to.....

Another issue that arises from..... is that [.....]. One major impact of this is Furthermore, [.....]. Failure to address this problem may result in..... It is vital that those mentioned problems be addressed by.....soon. Otherwise, if this trend continues, there is a likelihood that

Template of a paragraph with (CAUSES/PROBLEMS) – SOLUTIONS PARAGRAPH

The issue of _____ has become more serious in recent years and affects many people.

(To begin with, it is important to understand the main causes/problems related to this issue. One major cause/problem of this is _____, which leads to _____. Another problem/cause is _____, and this makes the situation worse because _____.)

However, more attention should be paid to the solutions that can help deal with this issue. One effective solution is to _____. This would help because _____. For example, _____. Another important solution is _____. By doing this, _____, which can reduce the problem in the long term. In addition, _____ could also be encouraged so that _____.

In conclusion, although _____ causes serious problems, practical solutions such as _____ and _____ can make a positive difference.